OBJECTION TO TRUSTEE'S DETERMINATION OF CLAIM

Susan Blumenfeld ("Blumenfeld"), by her attorneys, CLAYMAN & ROSENBERG LLP, hereby objects to the Notice of Trustee's Determination of Claim dated April 28, 2010 (the "Determination Letter"), appended hereto as Exhibit A, as set forth herein.

BACKGROUND

1. Blumenfeld is a "Customer" as that term is defined by the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA") of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("BLMIS").
2. Blumenfeld received a final statement from BLMIS which indicated that Blumenfeld owned securities valued at $28,376,982.76.
3. On December 11, 2008, the above-captioned liquidation proceeding was commenced against BLMIS, pursuant to the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 ("SIPA"). Irving Picard was appointed Trustee ("BLMIS Trustee") with oversight of the liquidation of BLMIS and responsibility for processing customer claims for money pursuant to SIPA.
4. By Order dated December 23, 2008, the Court directed the Trustee to disseminate notice and claim forms to BLMIS customers and set forth claim-filing deadlines. The Order further authorized the Trustee, inter alia, "to satisfy, within the limits provided by SIPA, those portions of any and all customer claims and accounts which agree with the Debtor's books and records," and provided that, where the BLMIS Trustee disagrees with the amount claimed in a customer's claim form, the BLMIS Trustee, "shall notify such claimant by mail of his determination that the claim is disallowed, in whole or in part, and the reason therefor..."
5. On or about June 25, 2009, Blumenfeld timely submitted a customer claim form to SIPC setting forth its claim in the amount of $28,376,982.76 together with alternative calculations thereof ("Blumenfeld's claim"). A copy of Blumenfeld's claim form is appended hereto as Exhibit B.
6. On April 28, 2010, the BLMIS Trustee sent Blumenfeld a Determination Letter denying Blumenfeld's claim, "in its entirety." Exhibit A. The Determination Letter stated, in part, "No securities were ever purchased for your account... [B]ecause you have withdrawn more money than was deposited into your account, you do not have a positive “net equity” in your account and you are not entitled to an allowed claim in the BLMIS liquidation proceeding.”

7. Blumenfeld objects to the BLMIS Trustee’s disallowance of Blumenfeld’s claim for the reasons set forth hereinbelow.

GROUND FOR OBJECTION

8. First: The Trustee’s definition and application of the term, “net equity” as set forth in the Determination Letter is incorrect.

9. Second: The Determination Letter fails to comply with this Court’s December 23, 2008 Order authorizing the BLMIS Trustee to pay customer claims in accordance, “with the Debtor’s books and records.” The final BLMIS statement received by the trust is the best evidence of the amount due on the Trust’s claim based upon the Debtor’s books and records.

10. Third: The Trustee’s computation of the amount of money received by Blumenfeld from BLMIS and the amount of Blumenfeld’s deposits into its BLMIS account is incorrect.

11. Blumenfeld reserves the right to revise or amend this Objection. Blumenfeld’s failure to assert an objection on a particular ground or grounds shall not be construed as a waiver of its right to object or join in the objection of other claimants on any additional grounds.

12. Blumenfeld reserves all rights set forth in Rule 9014.

13. Blumenfeld incorporates herein by reference all claims and reservations of rights set forth in Blumenfeld’s claim form. Exhibit B.

RELIEF SOUGHT

14. Blumenfeld's claim should be allowed in its entirety.

15. The Court should direct SIPC to pay Blumenfeld $28,376,982.76 together with interest thereon commencing not later than the date of the Determination Letter.

16. In the alternative, the Court should direct SIPC to pay Blumenfeld up to the currently applicable limit of SIPA coverage believed by Blumenfeld to be $500,000.00.

17. Such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S DETERMINATION OF CLAIM

April 28, 2010

Susan Blumenfeld
One Whitney Lane
Old Westbury, NY 11568

Dear Susan Blumenfeld:

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

The liquidation of the business of BERNARD L. MADOFF INVESTMENT SECURITIES LLC ("BLMIS") is being conducted by Irving H. Picard, Trustee under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq. ("SIPA"), pursuant to an order entered on December 15, 2008 by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

The Trustee has made the following determination regarding your claim on BLMIS Account No. 1B0042 designated as Claim Number 011795:

Your claim for securities is DENIED. No securities were ever purchased for your account.

Further, based on the Trustee's analysis, the amount of money you withdrew from your account at BLMIS (total of $16,416,225.41), as more fully set forth in Table 1 annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is greater than the amount that was deposited with BLMIS for the purchase of <sup>1</sup> Section 78III(7)(B) of SIPA states that the filing date is "the date on which an application for a protective decree is filed under 78eee(a)(3)," except where the debtor is the subject of a proceeding pending before a United States court "in which a receiver, trustee, or liquidator for such debtor has been appointed and such proceeding was commenced before the date on which such application was filed, the term 'filing date' means the date on which such proceeding was commenced." Section 78III(7)(B). Thus, even though the Application for a protective decree was filed on December 15, 2008, the Filing Date in this action is on December 11, 2008.

securities (total of $5,332,221.99). As noted, no securities were ever purchased by BLMIS for your account. Any and all profits reported to you by BLMIS on account statements were fictitious.

As reflected in Table 1, certain of the transfers into or out of your account have been adjusted. As part of the Trustee's analysis of accounts, the Trustee has assessed accounts based on a money in/money out analysis (i.e., has the investor deposited more or less than he or she withdrew from BLMIS). This analysis allows the Trustee to determine which part of an account's balance is originally invested principal and which part is fictitious gains that were fabricated by BLMIS. A customer's allowed claim is based on the amount of principal in the customer's account.

Whenever a customer requested a transfer from one account to another, the Trustee analyzed whether the transferor account had principal in the account at the time of the transfer. The available principal in the account was transferred to and credited in the transferee account. Thus, the reason that the adjusted amount of transferred deposits or withdrawals in Table 1 is less than the purported transfer amount is that the transferor account did not have sufficient principal available to effectuate the full transfer. The difference between the purported transfer amount and the adjusted transfer amount is the amount of fictitious gain that was transferred to or from your account. Under the money in/money out analysis, the Trustee does not give credit for fictitious gains in settling your allowed claim.

Since there were no profits to use either to purchase securities or to pay you any money beyond the amount that was deposited into your BLMIS account, the amount of money you received in excess of the deposits in your account ($11,084,003.42) was taken from other customers and given to you. Accordingly, because you have withdrawn more than was deposited into your account, you do not have a positive "net equity" in your account and you are not entitled to an allowed claim in the BLMIS liquidation proceeding. Therefore, your claim is DENIED in its entirety.

On March 1, 2010, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (Lifland, J.) issued a decision which affirmed the Trustee's Net Investment Method for determining customer claims. The final resolution of this issue is expected to be determined on appeal.

Should a final and unappealable court order determine that the Trustee is incorrect in his interpretation of "net equity" and its corresponding application to the determination of customer claims, the Trustee will be bound by that order and will apply it retroactively to all previously determined customer claims in accordance with the Court's order. Nothing in this Notice of Trustee's Determination of Claim shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or claims held by you in having your customer claim re-determined in accordance with any such Court order.

Nothing in this Notice of Trustee's Determination of Claim shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or claims held by the Trustee against you.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: If you disagree with this determination and desire a hearing before Bankruptcy Judge Burton R. Lifland, you MUST file your written opposition, setting forth the grounds for your disagreement, referencing Bankruptcy Case No. 08-1789 (BRL) and attaching copies of any documents in support of your position, with the United States Bankruptcy Court and the Trustee within THIRTY DAYS after April 28, 2010, the date on which the Trustee mailed this notice.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE: If you do not properly and timely file a written opposition, the Trustee's determination with respect to your claim will be deemed confirmed by the Court and binding on you.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE: If you properly and timely file a written opposition, a hearing date for this controversy will be obtained by the Trustee and you will be notified of that hearing date. Your failure to appear personally or through counsel at such hearing will result in the Trustee's determination with respect to your claim being confirmed by the Court and binding on you.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE: You must mail your opposition, if any, in accordance with the above procedure, to each of the following addresses:

Notes: ① I believe when Milton Weinstein passed away, W.R. Green stock was left to S. Blumenthal. This W.R. Green stock threw off quarterly dividends to the tune of 1125.60 a quarter. These represent a major portion of the withdrawals in the earlier years. Ed Blumenthal's part is that Madoff did have possession of stocks which Picard says he did not have from day one.

② The checks agree to my records
Susan ~~transferred~~ transferred 3M to the EB/ST Clat in 2006
✓ 2.687M to a SB GST Trust in 2008
Picard adjusted these transfers in column II

③ The two 1.5M transfers on 8/19/99 went to DB and 6M's accounts respectively.
